Charming Matron and Girls in Beethoven Club Entertainment

ANNIE MACDONALD.

Bonnie Little Annie Macdonald, in the quaint costume of a Highland lassie, dancing the sword dance of Scotland, will be one of the lovely features of the entertainment which will be given by the musical culture class of the Beethoven club at the Woman's building Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Little Miss Macdonald, who has won wide recognition by her grace and unusual talent as a dancer, will be accompanied by her father, Donald Macdonald, who will play the Scottish bagpipes.

MRS. H. W. BRENNAN.

The program for the entertainment, which is being given in honor of the new members of the club, has been arranged by Mrs. R. A. Street, vice-chairman of the musical culture class. Mrs. Street has been assisted in making the preparations for the lovely affair by Mrs. A. B. Williams and Miss Rachel Johnston.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Liberty Loan Dinner.

Mr. Robert L. Jordan will leave Friday night for St. Louis to attend a meeting in connection with preparations for the fifth Liberty Loan Dinner. Mrs. Sam H. Phillips will also attend the meeting and will probably go Saturday morning. An elaborate dinner party is to be given all guests by the St. Louis Liberty Loan organization Saturday night, at which the two prominent Memphians will be present.

Valentine Musical.

A Valentine musical will be given at the home of Mrs. Frank Hill, Union avenue, Feb. 14 at 2:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Calvary church choir.

WEDDINGS

Anderson-Williams.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. J. M. Jorgensen, 671 Bethel avenue, when Mrs. M. A. Williams became the bride of Mr. L. T. Anderson, the Rev. L. N. Strother officiating, in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have a wide circle of friends in Memphis, who will be glad to learn that they will make their home here.

They will be at home with Mrs. Jorgensen during the spring.

WALTON EXONERATED.

A verdict of justifiable homicide was returned by the coroner's jury Tuesday in the case of W. D. Walton, charged with murder, who shot to death Will Murphy, negro, an alleged boxer thief.

Walton, who is special agent for the Illinois Central railroad, shot Murphy at his home, 1008 Texas avenue, when the negro attempted to draw a gun, the police report says.

College Fudge.

Two cups white sugar, one-half cup milk, one-half cup butter (which may be omitted), two squares baker's chocolate grated, and one teaspoon vanilla. Boil the sugar, milk and butter fast for 10 minutes. Add the chocolate and boil two or three minutes longer. Try by dropping a little in cold water, and if moderately hard take from fire, and add the vanilla and heat until the mixture gradually turns to sugar. Turn on the buttered dishes and cut in squares before it gets too cold.

Honors for Washington.

One of the most beautiful affairs of the month will be the luncheon which will be given on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, at the Hotel Gayoso, by the members of the Memphis D. A. R. Chapter House association, of which Mrs. Charles B. Bryan is president.

A program, which will probably be a Washington birthday feature, is being planned, and a number of prominent people will take part to make the affair a success.

Plans for the celebration and the luncheon were made at a meeting of all D. A. R. chapters, and members of the chapter House association, at the Gayoso, Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

400 AUTOS STOLEN IN ELEVEN MONTHS

Average for This Year Three Per Day—Owners and Agents Combine.

Automobile thefts are to be greatly decreased if plans laid in a conference held by the Memphis Automobile club, the Memphis Automobile association and the Automobile Detective bureau, which was held Monday afternoon at the Commercial club.

The plans will call for special agencies to prosecute auto thieves, according to Owen Lilly, president of the dealers' association. The combined association will call upon the police in apprehending thieves.

The organizations have promulgated the number of the motor of the stolen car, the Memphis Automobile club, in charge of Frank M. Chiozza, official record clerk, will lead the representatives of local shipper. This is the first conference of the nature, and the shipper will decide whether to oppose or acquiesce in the change.

The carriers propose to fix certain rates in which shipments from Memphis will be unloaded at night. For example, freight at Cleveland, Miss., will be unloaded only twice or three times a week.

The railroads are represented by J. A. Weems, of the Southern, and J. E. Johnson, of the Rock Island. James S. Davant, of the Memphis Freight bureau, will lead the representatives of local shipper.
